

I do not want the Telephone Protection Act weakened in any way. I feel telemarketers will have to find another avenue to reach their potential clients. I do not want it to happen during my dinner hour or on a week-end with my family. It has been so peaceful without being disturbed by all of their annoying calls.